Who Should Attend?

TCAP's Courageous Creativity Conference is designed for K-12 arts education leaders, educators and decision makers. The conference provides a space to become informed, learn from the current industry leaders and arts educators, and engage in conversations on topics critical to arts education given changes in the current educational landscape. The conference's format is not a "hands on" art-making/engagement workshop.

TCAP encourages teams from schools and districts!

- K-12 Administrators
 - K-12 Education Administrators
