

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

California Standards call for students to develop literacy in all content areas. These programs develop teacher's literacy and skills in dance, music, theatre or visual arts. They are aligned with California K – 8 Visual and Performing Arts Content Standards and Common Core Content Literacy and Technical Subjects.

Through engaging directly in the discipline teachers uncover the content, literacy, artistic processes, and develop skills to begin to support student literacy in the arts discipline.

Teachers discover the connections and support arts education provides to the English Language Arts and English Language Development Standards.

Participating teachers create and implement a standards-based unit for their classroom while reigniting the creativity of their students and themselves!

WHO WE ARE

The California Arts Project (TCAP) is one of nine discipline specific networks of the California Subject Matter Project.

TCAP's central mission is to improve teaching and learning in dance, music, theatre, visual and career arts.

Through its statewide and regional leadership learning centers, The California Arts Project, serves as a learning community of educators, TK through university, with a focus on teacher as teacher, teacher as learner, teacher as leader, and teacher as artist.
